Prior to exiting the arena after completion of the versatility pattern, exhibitors will be required to dismount. All exhibitors will be able to mount after the final horse has completed the versatility pattern.

Horses remain in the make-up ring, or show pen, for the duration of the event. Horse must show in all classes to receive final placings. The same exhibitor must show the same horse in all classes.

These classes will highlight form to function, conformation, trainability, quality of movement and performance using traditional AQHA class rules. The low judge's score of each exhibitor will be dropped in all three classes, thereby rewarding excellence. The final result will be calculated by adding the single class placings, including the above percentages. Placings will NOT be announced, or made known to any judge, until the event has been completed.
